Customs can be complicated

Customs declarations can add complexity and cost for any company involved in importing or exporting goods, no matter what their source or destination.

Common frustrations include:

- Costs of skilled staff
- Over reliance on 3rd party agents
- Delays on receiving documents
- Keeping software systems up to date

CustomsPro puts you back in control.

Switch to CustomsPro

Unlike other Software as a Service (SaaS) solutions for customs clearance, CustomsPro was designed by customs experts. ChannelPorts have been customs agents since 1974 and specialise in road and sea freight clearances for both the EU and rest of the world.

The ChannelPorts team monitor all declarations and can intervene when necessary to ensure your declarations pass swiftly into the Customs Declaration Service (CDS) system and responses are received immediately.

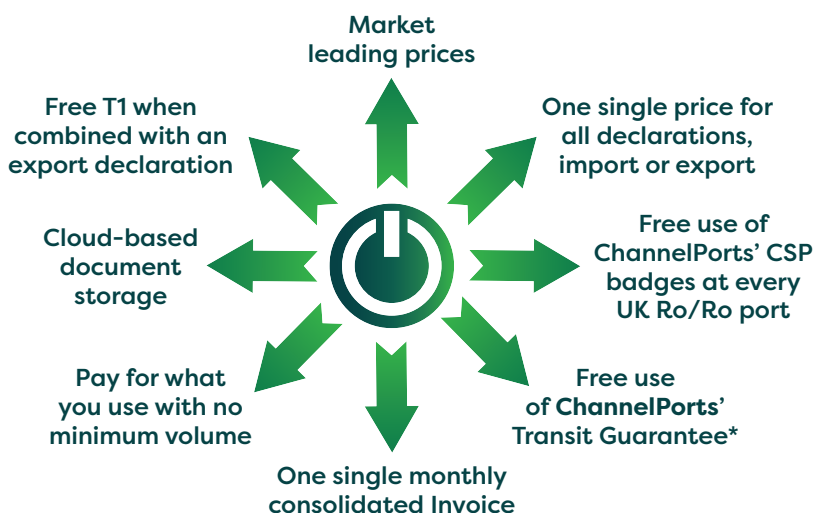

Our team of experienced customs experts are on call 24/7, 365 days a year. When your team are working, our team is at the end of the phone line ready to answer any customs questions or issues they need solving to keep your goods moving without delays.

CustomsPro is a SaaS (Software as a Service) solution which gives you full control of the customs clearance process and keeps your goods and vehicles moving without delays.

The CustomsPro difference

CustomsPro is unique. It is designed by customs experts who understand the issues that can arise with customs paperwork. The system eliminates common frustrations associated with moving goods through the customs process. It combines market leading rates with exceptional customer support.

CustomsPro's simple, web-based interface makes it easy for any staff to complete declarations. Set-up takes less than 24 hours and there are no upfront or ongoing costs. You only pay for the transactions you submit with one monthly consolidated invoice.

* up to shipment value of £300,000

API (Application Programming Interface) option removes need for manual processing

CustomsPro has full API connectivity enabling you to further automate production of customs clearance documents directly from invoice and system information further reducing costs and processing times.

Why CustomsPro?

API Integration for more speed

CustomsPro has full API capability enabling you to automate documents quickly and easily. We've already carried out successful integrations for many customers who have seen the benefits in direct cost and time savings.

CustomsPro delivers results for customers

In a recent Customer Survey, 90% of customers said they would recommend CustomsPro and ChannelPorts to peers and colleagues.
